Notes

[a] In accordance with Council resolutions 1998/46, annex I, sections C and D, and 1998/47, the Committee on Natural Resources and the Committee on New and Renewable Sources of Energy and on Energy for Development were merged into a single expert body named the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources for Development; the members of the new Committee were elected by the Council at its resumed substantive session of 1998. At its 50th meeting, on 16 December 1998, the Council postponed to a future session the election of three members from African States and one member from Asian States for a term beginning on the date of election and expiring on 31 December 2002 (decision 1998/202 D).

[b] In accordance with Council resolutions 1998/46, annex I, section A, and 1998/47, the membership of the Commission was reduced from 53 to 33; elections to the Commission were held at the resumed substantive session of 1998. At its 50th meeting, on 16 December 1998, the Council postponed to a future session the election of seven members from African States for a term beginning on the date of election and expiring on a date to be determined by lot, and two members from Asian States for a term beginning on the date of election and expiring on 31 December 2000 (decision 1998/202 D).

[c] In accordance with Council resolutions 1998/46, annex I, section B, and 1998/47, the Committee for Development Planning was renamed the Committee for Development Policy. The members of the new Committee were nominated by the Secretary-General, and approved by the Council for a two-year term, on an exceptional basis, at its resumed substantive session of 1998; the Council further decided that the term of office of future appointees would be three years (decision 1998/202 D).
